Fund Activity

- We bought BHEL, SBI
- We reduced KSK, HDFC Bank

Outlook

- Our underweight stance in global commodities and overweight stance on domestic consumption reflects a stronger domestic recovery relative to global recovery. We feel this should benefit the fund in the coming months.
- Inflation in India is on the rise and may result in tightening of the monetary policy and the portfolio is therefore underweight interest rate sensitive sectors.

- We sold Corporation Bank

Outlook

- Infrastructure projects are facing execution delays and policy hurdles. In light of this, the existing players in the infrastructure space are enjoying a pricing power. For example, in the power sector the merchant power rate remains high. Our portfolio is overweight developers and underweight construction companies.
- Activity in the road sector has picked up post acceptance of "BK Chaturvedi Committee" recommendations. It is targeted that nearly 12000 - 13000 km of road contracts will be awarded ever year.
- Activity in the power sector was dominated by power sector IPOs which bode well for financial closures. Also, merchant tariffs remain high indicating a willingness by distribution companies to pay.
